AMALIE SKOV RAHBÆK

DESIGNER PORTRAIT

Amalie Skov Rahbæk is an upcoming and talented designer born in Denmark. In 2015, she completed her Bachelor in Design at VIA Design and Business school in Denmark and Today, she runs her own studio named Design by Skov.

In her design process, Amalie Rahbæk is very meticulous and reflecting. With the aim of carrying on the Scandinavian design traditions, she creates simple yet functional designs with different purposes. The soft shapes and combination of distinctive materials characterise her designs.

Amalie skov Rahbæk presented the Wallie shelf for the first time at the Greenhouse exhibition at the Stockholm Furniture Fair in February 2016 as part of the VIA University College exhibition. Her focus was to create a visually strong and simple design that both could stand-alone and easily be combined with other designs.

DESIGNERPORTRÆT

Amalie Skov Rahbæk er en blomsterende, talentfuld designer fra i Danmark. I 2015 afsluttede hun sin bachelor i design på VIA Design & Business, hvilket gav hende mod på at starte sit eget. I dag driver hun et studie med navnet Design by Skov.

I sin designproces er Amalie Rahbæk meget omhyggelig og reflekterende. Med et formål om at videreføre de skandinaviske designtraditioner, skaber hun simpelt, men funktionelt design med alsidige anvendelsesmuligheder til forskellige formål.

Hun præsenterede sit design, Wallie, for første gang på Greenhouse udstillingen på Stockholm Furniture Fair i februar 2016 som en del af VIA University College udstillingen. Her var hendes fokus at skabe et visuelt stærkt og simpelt design, som både kunne stå alene og let kombineres med andre designs.
