

PK80™

In an ongoing attempt to unite the sublime with the absolutely necessary, Poul Kjærholm designed the PK80™ daybed. The strikingly beautiful result is one of Kjærholm's most sophisticated and iconic designs. The daybed is a clear illustration of Poul Kjærholm's method of refining historical models and distilling them down to their essence and demonstrating his superior ability to balance construction and choice of materials. The inspiration for the daybed came from Bauhaus, who in turn, were inspired by ancient Roman couches. PK80 is upholstered in leather and supported by a satin brushed stainless steel frame. The purchase of the PK80 for the galleries of the Museum of Modern Art in New York in 2004 recognises the daybed's rightful place in furniture history.

DESIGN

Poul Kjærholm, 1957.

POUL KJÆRHOLM 1929-1980

Poul Kjærholm was a trained cabinet maker and continued his studies at the Danish School of Arts and Crafts in Copenhagen. He had a particular interest in different construction materials, especially steel, which he considered a natural material with the same artistic fineness as other natural materials.

Poul Kjærholm was first employed at Fritz Hansen for about a year, where he designed a number of noteworthy chair prototypes. In 1955, Poul Kjærholm initiated his collaboration with manufacturer Ejvind Kold Christensen, which lasted until Kjærholm's death in 1980. In 1982, Fritz Hansen took over the manufacture and sales of "The Kjærholm Collection", which was developed over the period 1951 to 1967.

UPHOLSTERY

PK80™ comes with upholstery in natural canvas as well as in the following leather types: Classic, Rustic, Natural, White, Optical white, Elegance and Sense.
